Re: Schoolhouse Staffing & Services, Inc. Agreement with JRME Enterprises to provide computer services for Dove Academy and Weston Academy

Dear Mr. Matesic:

Our Firm represents Schoolhouse Staffing & Services, Inc. ("Schoolhouse") with regard to computer services to be provided by you with regard to Dove Academy and Weston Academy ("Academies").

It has come to our attention, that without the consent of Schoolhouse that:

1. You shut down or caused to be shut down the cable and internet services to the Academies. While Schoolhouse was able to rectify this problem and interference, you are advised that you were not authorized to shut down such access and that you are not to interfere with such access at any time.
2. You closed/block access to the website addresses of the Academies which has prevented and interfered with numerous items including, but not limited to e-mail access. Again, you are advised that you are not authorized to deny and/or prevent such access and that you must immediately restore such access and thereafter not interfere with and/or prevent such access in the future.
3. Without the consent and authority from the Academies and Schoolhouse you changed the respective domain ownerships from Weston Academy to JRME Enterprises and from Dove Academy to JRME Enterprises. The same must be rectified within one day from the date of this letter and ownership restore to Weston Academy and to Dove Academy.
